The Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) (43 U.S.C. 1730) directs the Secretary of the Interior to involve the public in planning and issues related to management of lands administered by the BLM. Section 309 of FLPMA directs the Secretary to establish 10- to 15-member citizen-based advisory councils that are consistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). As required by FACA, RAC membership must be balanced and representative of the various interests concerned with the management of the public lands. The rules governing RACs are found at 43 CFR subpart 1784.

Council members are distributed among the following three categories:

Category 1—Persons who:

- a. Hold Federal grazing permits or leases within the area for which the council is organized;
- b. Represent interests associated with transportation or rights-of-way;
- c. Represent developed outdoor recreation, off-highway vehicle users, or commercial recreation activities;
- d. Represent the commercial timber industry; or
- e. Represent energy and mineral development.

Category 2—Persons representing:

- a. Nationally or regionally recognized environmental organizations;
- b. Dispersed recreational activities;
- c. Archeological and historical interests; or
- d. Nationally or regionally recognized wild horse and burro interest groups.

Category 3—Persons who:

- a. Hold state, county, or local elected office;
- b. Are employed by a State agency responsible for management of natural resources, land, or water;

- c. Represent Indian tribes within or adjacent to the area for which the council is organized;
- d. Are employed as academicians in natural resource management or the natural sciences; or
- e. Represent the affected public-at-large.

The BLM received Click here to enter number. applications to fill Click here to enter number. positions. The following recommendations will fill Choose the correct number of positions. in Category 1, Choose the correct number of positions. in Category 2, and Choose the correct number of positions. in Category 3.

The table below provides recommendations for primary and alternates within each category.

The table below provides justifications for reappointment of existing RAC members in lieu of selection of new members (if applicable). For example: “Mr./Ms. Nominee is very knowledgeable and passionate about BLM public lands. He/she is an effective advocate for conservation interests, and has an in-depth knowledge of many BLM programs, laws, regulations, and policies that apply to them. He/she has always been open-minded and willing to listen to disparate views. With his/her dedication and passion about this state’s diverse landscape, Mr./Ms. Nominee would continue serving as a valuable asset to the RAC.”
